The Elba Clipper

Poverty Program Subject Of Local Chamber Talk

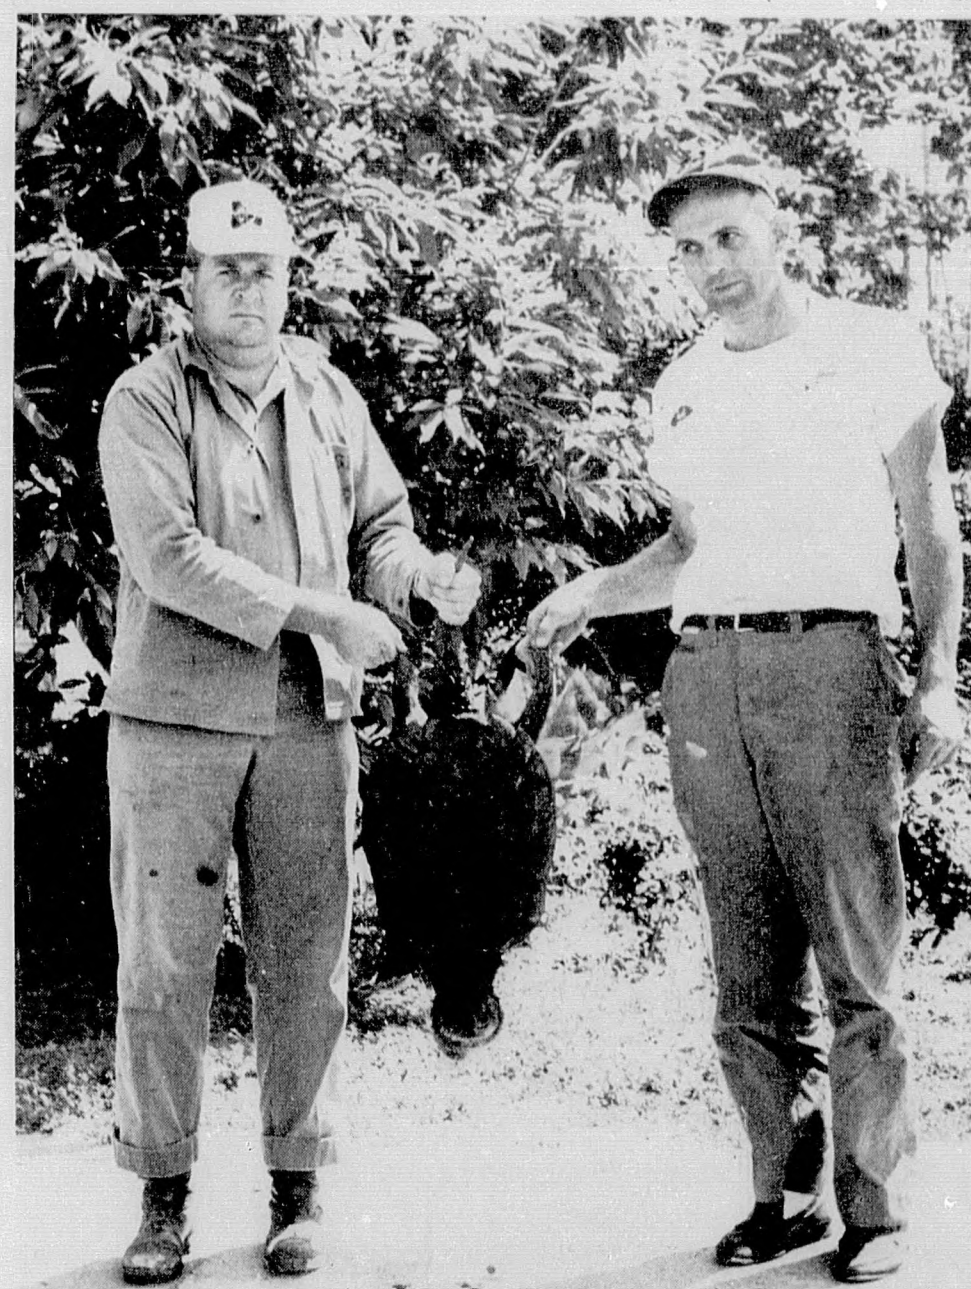

M. C. Colley, of the Alabama Advisory Committee for Economic Opportunity, was the speaker at the Chamber of Commerce meeting at Paul's Cafe Tuesday night, April 20th, at 7 o'clock.

Recently completed and shown at the meeting Tuesday night were booklets to be used in a program to welcome newcomers to the city. Brochures will be available to be sent to industrial prospects and others inquiring about the city.

James H. Blair is serving as chairman of the welcoming committee. Working with him are Mrs. Charles Lindsey and Jack King.

Each new family moving to Elba will be welcomed by the committee. The booklets conveying information about where to find the essential services and facilities in the city will also contain coupons to introduce them to the various member merchants of the Chamber of Commerce.

Various civic organizations are being asked to continue to page 2

Teenage Politicians 'Learn By Doing' On County Government Day

"County Government Day" was held in Enterprise Monday, sponsored jointly by the American Legion Culver Post #42 in Elba and the County Government Day program, Blue Barger, Department Vice-Commander, Maxwell Reeves, 9th District Commander, Wayne Ellis, Commander of Cook-Clement Post #73 in Enterprise.

Students participating from the individual schools and the office they held were as follows: KINSTON HIGH SCHOOL Circuit Judge, Jimmie Culver Post #42, Gus McCall, Elba, and General Floyd, of Enterprise. Also present was Mr. B. A. Forrester, president of the new Junior College in Enterprise.

Officers said at the scene that day that the charge was placed under the doorsteps which led into the living room and that if anyone had been in the area of the living room they would have been killed. Wright stated following his arrest that he didn't intend to page 2

Enterprise Man Charged In Home Bombing

An Enterprise man, William Howard Wright, is being held in the Houston County Jail without bond and charged with setting off explosives which partially shattered the home of Mrs. Geraldine Vann in Dothan April 8.

Fontell Mathews, 44, also of Enterprise, was one of four persons sleeping in the house when the blast went off with such violence that it broke five windows in the home of Burnett Branton, 150 yards away.

Also in the house were Mrs. Vann and her two sons, Weeden, six years old and Wiley Vann, 16. Wright is married to the sister of Mrs. Mathews.

Officers said at the scene that day that the charge was placed under the doorsteps which led into the living room and that if anyone had been in the area of the living room they would have been killed. Wright stated following his arrest that he didn't intend to page 2

Public Officials Senator John Sparkman Lend Support To Library Week

The week of April 25-May 1 has been proclaimed "Library Week" by both Elba Mayor, L.P. Mullins, and Alabama Governor George C. Wallace in an effort to get a better-read, better-informed America and to encourage the greater use of the library facilities that are available to the public, all so that we can realize the full potential of our nation's purpose.

The personal endorsements by these two leaders, National Library Week and its themes: "Know What You're Reading," "Open Your Future-Read!", is in recognition of the fact that our freedom to read imposes a responsibility on all of us to make constant and beneficial use of our library facilities.

Senator John Sparkman will be the lay speaker in the pulpit of the Elba Methodist Church Sunday morning, April 25, according to an announcement, Senator Sparkman will also attend the annual Elba Union Church at the Fox Branton Farm near Elba.

Senator Sparkman, Democrat, Huntsville, Alabama, was born on a farm near Hartselle, Alabama. He is a graduate of Hartselle High School, and the University of Alabama where he received A.B., A.M., and LL.B. degrees. On finishing the University Law School, Sparkman practiced law in Huntsville.

In 1936 he was elected U.S. Senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator John H. Bankhead. He was re-elected for five terms without opposition. In the House he was a Military Affairs Committee member. During his last House term, he was Majority Whip.

In 1946, he was elected U.S. Senator to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator John H. Bankhead. He was re-elected for five terms without opposition. In the House he was a Military Affairs Committee member. During his last House term, he was Majority Whip.

know any children were involved and that he only wanted to scare them, Mrs. Vann and Mathews.

The doorsteps of the Vann home were littered with debris from a small crater was left in the ground at the entrance to the living room. Virtually every square foot of floor space was littered with fragments of glass, lumber and other debris. Shrubbery was seared by the heat, cabinet doors in the kitchen were flung open, their contents left on the floor. Among the debris on the living room floor were knobs off a television set in the living room. Officers said they had been wrenched from their stems.

The warrant charged that Wright "willfully set off or exploded dynamite or other explosive in, under or dangerously near the dwelling house of Mrs. Geraldine Vann, in which there was at the time a human being." The charge, upon conviction, could carry the death penalty.

Jus' Ramblin

By LUCILE K. WOODHAM

WE MUST UNDERSTAND that signing forms by our school boards that no discrimination exists in our public schools is complying with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act and is mandatory in order that we continue to retain federal funds. Without federal funds our schools would virtually crumble. Refusing to do so would only make matters worse for us. We would be forced to segregate under federal orders regardless if white and black citizens wanted it or not, and we would lose federal funds as well. As the order is the Negro people are slaves to the federal government as well as the whites for they have no control over what they would rather do, either.

Many school boards are taking the lesser of two evils and that is leaving the matter of selection of a school student to attend to freedom of choice. That seems to be the fairer of the order to most school boards from the state down to city boards.

The school boards should have the backing of us all. White and colored parents should make a special effort to understand the problem which should be approached cautiously. Certainly neither race will want to do anything that will interfere with our educational process which is very necessary for both white and colored students.

It is not a matter if we agree with the Civil Rights Act.

gained Sheriff Clark let each group screen its own members and appoint them because of that. The judges used the point to state that he did not have actual control over the possession and that they should be disbanded. Clark will not reorganize the posse with that ethnicity left out.

Kinston Math Students In Tournament

Kinston High School annually sends a team of advanced math students to a math tournament held at Howard College on April 23, 1965. Six students chosen to represent Kinston as a team are Gerald Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin; Gerald Prescott, son of Mr. and Mrs. E.W. Prescott; Jerry Wise, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wise; Jimmy McInnis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McInnis; Jerry Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neadon Weeks; and Mrs. A.A. Davis.

Mr. James Helms will go as a sponsor for the team. He is a member of the Kinston faculty as a math instructor.

FORMER REIDENT PREACH IN OPP

Reverend Harold DeVane will preach at the Memorial Methodist Church in Opp in a revival, April 26 thru 30th. Services will be held every evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. DeVane has many relatives in and around Elba. He is an Elba native, finishing Elba High School.

PERSONALS

Mrs. John Bonneau, Jake and Corinne spent Wednesday in Montgomery. While there they visited Doctor and Mrs. B. F. Austin and others, and in a very pleasant visit.

Mrs. Bonneau's cousin, Miss Connie Cooper, a student at Agnes Scott, spent the Easter holidays with her parents, Doctor and Mrs. Bancroft Cooper.

L.S. Rainer, Jr., chairman of the public committee, reports that new brochures have been completed and are being printed to take the place of those published in 1957. These brochures will be mailed to industries and especially to prospects regarding the city. Rainer reports that the brochures contain pictures and vital information about the city answering the questions most frequently asked by industrialists and a map of the city.

At the meeting Tuesday night, Colley discussed the benefits and projects available through the federal anti-poverty Economic Opportunity Act.

Elba Teachers Hold Training Meeting

The high school faculty of Elba City School concluded its year of In-Service Thursday, April 8, with a study of Programmed Learning.

Mrs. Joe Ann King presented the devotional and led in prayer.

Mr. Lamar Foley, principal, announced the topic of the program, Coach Ray Flowers discussed "What is Programmed Learning," and presented illustrations of how it may be employed in social studies. A lesson in programmed learning was conducted by Mr. Foley as teachers studied and worked a book-let that was designed to teach what programmed learning is.

Mrs. Annabell Wilkes discussed how programmed studies may be used in different classes. She demonstrated the use of two teaching machines that could be used in individual students in various classes.

One teaching machine is available in the high school for classes in programmed learning and is currently being used in a reading class in junior high school.

This study of programmed learning concluded a year's study in In-Service as the high school teachers endeavored to improve the educational program of the high school.

Mrs. Sam Collier served as consultant in the field of art for the elementary teachers. She used the topic of improving Educational Practices With New Ideas in Art. Everyone enjoyed the program and many new ideas were given the teachers.

Mrs. Syble Taylor and members of the P.H.A. served the faculty with a delightful party plate, carrying out the Easter theme in their decorations.

Azalea Garden Club Meets At Elba Country Club

Since the April 14th pilgrimage to Wine Mountain, Georgia, planned by the Azalea Garden Club for a "Spend the Day" meeting at lovely Callaway Gardens was cancelled, a regular meeting was held at the Elba Country Club on Wednesday morning.

On arrival at 9:30, the members were seated at a long table in the dining hall where pie and coffee were served. The period following the refreshment hour was devoted entirely to business as no program had been planned. Mrs. J.M. Kimmey, president, presided and gave information about the annual reports. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Oliver Williams, roll call and minutes were omitted. Reports were made by all officers and committees. "Pennies from Heaven" were collected by the treasurer, Mrs. Sam Rowe. Mrs. Price Ringo distributed valuable material on "Insect Control of Shrubs and Shade Trees and Precautions in the Use of Insecticides" by Roy J. Ledbetter, Extension Entomologist. The main item of business was perfecting the plans for the "Children's Easter Parade" scheduled for Friday night, April 30th. Native Of Estonia Speaks To BPW

The Business and Professional Women's Club held a supper meeting at the Country Club Monday night.

A beautiful and colorful floral arrangement was placed in the center of the head table.

Immediately after the meal, Miss Gladys Clark presented Mrs. Edna Paschal, of Enterprise, who introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. O.N. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson is a native of Estonia and is presently residing in Enterprise. She speaks English fluently, yet with a slightly different accent from Americans. She fascinated her audience with her charm and warmth of personality as she spoke so sincerely of her acquired love for the States and her deep appreciation for the privileges of living in America. She gave an account of the tragic way in which her native country was taken over by Communism. Her mother, now an elderly lady, still remains in Estonia.

At the conclusion of her address, Mrs. Myrtle Sellers presented gifts of appreciation to Mrs. Patterson and to Mrs. Paschal.

Mrs. Mabel Lawless presided and Miss Brenda Wallace read minutes of two previous meetings.

Mrs. Dorothy Lindsey explained a plan for committees from the various women's clubs in Elba to visit all new comers.

Club members present were: Mrs. Luna Delle Ringo, Mrs. Nellie B. Martin, Miss June Ray Jones, Mrs. Ann Elder, Mrs. Ann Lee Vaughan, Mrs. Wayne Boswell, Mrs. Myrtle Sellers, Mrs. Mabel Lawless, Miss Gladys Clark, Mrs. Addie Prescott, Mrs. Zelma M. Devane, Mrs. Lulla Mae Harper, and Mrs. Wendis Morrow. Guests of the club were: Mrs. O.N. Patterson and Mrs. Edna Paschal, of Enterprise; Mrs. Dixie Deal, Mrs. Dorothy Lindsey, Miss Lydia Thomas, Mrs. Gwen Marsh, and Mrs. Ola Kendrick.

The May meeting will feature the installation of new officers by Mrs. J.M. Kimmey and will be held in the home of Mrs. Claude Dorsey on Wednesday morning, May 12th.

A MATTER OF LUCK

Jim didn't catch any fish today. Now, on the way home, he can't help casting an envious eye at Tim's haul. It isn't that he begrudges Tim his fish. It's just that, in his heart, he can't help wish that he had been the lucky one.

This is natural, and Jim is young. He's just beginning to learn that you can't always be a winner, but he still finds losing pretty hard to take in stride.

Fortunately, Jim is being given the advantage of Christian training in church during this all-important period in a boy's life when a sense of values is being formed. He is learning lessons which only the Church can give him.

True, Jim is envying a very small item — a string of fish. But envy and greed come to all of us on a larger scale many times throughout life. To meet this challenge squarely, it takes years of self-discipline. That is why religious training can never begin too early.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services every lively and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
